

Publications That Are Available From the ESE Department

Accommodations and Modifications—What Parents Need to Know
The Sunshine State Standards and Students with Disabilities
FCAT Accommodations for Students with Disabilities
Getting Ready for Your Child's IEP Meeting
My Child May Have ADHD, What Shall I Do?
Simply Careers!—Helping Students with Disabilities Effectively Plan Their Futures
    Through Comprehensive Career Development
Transition Planning For Students with Disabilities—a Guide for Families
Accommodations and Modifications for Students with Disabilities in Career Education
    And Adult General Education
Diploma Decisions for Students with Disabilities
An Introduction to Exceptional Student Education—For Parents of Students with Disabilities
Developing Quality Individual Educational Plans
Partnering with Your Child's School: A Guide for Parents
Navigating the IEP
Parent Survival: Raising a Child with a Sensory Loss
Dare to Dream (Revised)—A Guide to Planning Your Future
Dare to Dream for Adults
Parents' Educational Records—for Parents of Florida's Students with Disabilities

What is Exceptional Student Education for Children Who Are Gifted?
An Introduction to Gifted Education
Can Your Child be Both Gifted and an Underachiever in School?
What are the Social and Emotional Needs of Gifted Students?

If you are interested in having one of these publications please contact Jeannine Cawthon by phone (955-7671 Ext. 263) or by email (cawthojm@gm.sbac.edu). They can be sent home via your child's school.